ICE FAMINE HAS CLOSED SALOONS, SODA FOUNTAINS

Mayor of Plano, Ill., Appeals to Ice Magnates of Chicago for Relief.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Saloons and soda fountains and ice-cream parlors in Plano, Ill., a town of 4,000, 40 miles west, are closed because of an ice famine. Mayor Stewart came to Chicago Monday and pleaded with the ice trust to sell him some ice. He had a talk with President Field of the Knickerbocker Ice Company, but received little encouragement. The young women of the village are complaining of the great ice-cream drought, the young men are at a loss for the means of "treating" the girls after the show at the opera house, and the men of family are lead in their denunciation of the necessity of running up and down stairs putting the milk and eggs on the "cellar bottom."

SCORE A TIE AT END OF 10TH

Barre-Montpelier and Burlington a Stand-off

DARKNESS ENDED GAME

Features of Game Were Splendid Catches by Loughlin and Daniels and Fast Infield Play by Manager Ulnac.

The sole survivors of the Northern league, Burlington and Barre-Montpelier, fought out a ten-inning game at the Intercity grounds yesterday afternoon, and the game had to rest a tie, six to six, after the curtain of darkness had been drawn just before the eleventh inning. Both teams seemed to be affected by the very warm atmosphere and little ginger was displayed.

The notable exceptions to an otherwise listless game were five extra line catches, two by Loughlin and three by Daniels, and a splendid stop by Ulnac, and perfect throw home, which got Gardner by inches. The catches of Loughlin were eye-openers for a fact. Both came in the ninth inning. Carroll laced the ball into deep left, and little Eddie ran backward and just nabbed the ball as it sailed over his head. The other catch by the captain was off Burde, the fielder running in and taking the ball just off the ground and losing his balance in the effort. All three of Dan's catches were difficult running efforts. Hays also performed well in the field, but he was woefully weak with the willow.

With the exception of Wiggs, Capt. Hays was the only man to fail to hit. Loughlin and Burns got two singles each off Wiggs and Eaton raised the longest home run of the season—a beautiful scupper over the center field parapet. And after that Wiggs had the bluff to remark, "They ain't got a clean rap off yet."

A hit by Carroll, a sacrifice by Pattee, a wild pitch and Burde's out gave the visitors their first score in the first. The Champs evened up in the second on a pass, a sacrifice and Burns' single. In the third the locals forged head on with three hits in order, thanks to some work by the Burlington infield. Hazelton knocked down Loughlin's grounder, but couldn't get his man. Ulnac tried to sacrifice and instead put up a pop which Hazelton couldn't quite hold, and Bill saw down. Daniels tried to sacrifice the two men along and the pop dropped between the pitcher's box and third base. Both Wiggs and Beach ran away from the ball as if scared of it, and the bases became filled. On Davis' out, Burde to Hazelton, Loughlin scored. The next two men were easy. Williams fouling to Francis and Beach throwing over Ashmore's grounder.

After Barre-Montpelier had scored three runs in the fourth the game looked good. Eaton started out with a home run and Burns followed with a single. Burton stashed one over first base and Burns went to third. Burton stole second and Burns scored. Wiggs played hop-skip and jump with Loughlin's grounder, which put Burton on third. Burton tried to go home on Loughlin's steal, but died. Pattee to Francis. Pattee lost Ulnac's grounder and Loughlin scored. It got so easy that Ulnac gave Francis' wing a try and went out. Hays gathered in Daniels' fly.

Burlington began to overcome the lead in the sixth on Burns' only pass, which fell to Burde. The stub winged it to second and went to third on Francis' out. Hazelton brought Burde in on a single. The seventh was a bad one for Burns. Gardner singled, but was doubled up trying to steal when Wiggs struck out. With two gone Carroll doubled. Pattee singled, Burde doubled. Williams fumbled and Hazelton doubled. The sum total was four runs, which put the leaders one to the good.

But they didn't remain there long, for in the same inning with two gone Beach fumbled Daniels' grounder, and Dan immediately stole second. Davis brought him in with a pretty single to the fence, making the tying score. Burlington got a single in each of the remaining three innings, but failed to score. Barre-Montpelier, threw away an excellent chance to break up the game in the eighth. Ashmore scratched a hit, was sacrificed to second and stole third while Francis was returning the ball to Wiggs. Burns got a pass and stole second, but the next two batters, Burton and Loughlin, struck out.

There was only a small attendance at the game. A new official product umpired the game. His name was Chury, and barring two or three bad decisions he gave satisfaction. But it was too hot to kick, anyway. The score and summary:

Boston, Aug. 22.—Boston took the rubber game from Detroit yesterday afternoon, 5 to 2, through bunching of hits, the locals doing some really creditable stick work. They started in the first inning. With one down Parent singled and Stahl did the same thing. On Ferris' out to Crawford Parent went to third. The two runners then worked a double steal. Parent scoring and Stahl landing on second, the latter being brought in by Hoy's single to right. Grimsaw forced Hoy.

OFFICERS TIRED OUT

PUNISHMENT, HOWEVER,

Regarded as Inevitable — Zamais Appointed Governor of Cete-Rockefeller Is Not Backing the Tanganyika Railway.

London, Aug. 22.—The verdict in the case of the loss of the battleship Montague, which entails a severe reprimand and loss of ship for the two highest officers, is regarded as just and as having been inevitable, by all the London morning newspapers, but great sympathy is extended to Captain Adair and Lieutenant Dathan on account of the admittedly difficult circumstances of the case, and they are considered to be the victims of ill-fortune rather than of carelessness. Both were officers of excellent record, and the evidence showed that they were tired out by forty-eight hours more or less, of incessant duty.

Various suggestions are made as the outcome of the disaster to the Montague, the first being that the fog signals at Lindy appear to have inadequate range, and on this a board of trade inquiry probably will be instituted. The second idea is that a signal navigating officer on a man-of-war is not sufficient. Captain Adair's orders were to carry out important wireless experiments and the evidence showed that he was almost constantly engaged in the wireless room. Some comment takes the shape of protest against the employment of first-class battleships in such dangerous proximity to perilous coasts. While it is admitted that officers must obtain experience, it is contended that this might equally well be obtained on board smaller vessels. In some quarters it is suggested that the judgment is a concession to the public disappointment over the loss of the battleship, and the Standard complains that the Government has taken the moment when the nation has been deprived of a first-class battleship to cut still further the naval programme.

VOTE FOR WORKERS

MAIN LINES OF ACTION IN LABOR'S POLITICAL PROGRAMME.

Plan of Campaign Recommended by American Federation—Important Questions For Members of Unions to Consider.

The political programme of the American Federation of Labor, formally issued Monday, July 23, should be studied carefully and promptly acted upon.

Three main lines of action for organized labor are proposed—the election of a congress that will be favorable to labor's cause, the holding of a labor convention in each state and the placing of labor candidates in the field on where they can be elected or where both the leading parties ignore labor's demands.

This is a sensible plan. The central idea is "to arouse the citizenship of our common country interested in good government to the apathy or hostility of the party in power to the real interest of the people."

The term "party in power" applies to the national government. In state affairs the Democratic party in the south must be defeated, the same as the Republican party in the northern states.

A subject of overshadowing importance is, What issues shall be declared for in the several states? Very properly that question is to be decided in each state at convention. "We recommend," says the American Federation of Labor, "that central bodies and local unions proceed without delay by the election of delegates to meet in conference or convention, to further the interests of this movement, and in accordance with the plan herein outlined at the proper time and in the proper manner nominate candidates who will unquestionably stand for the enactment into law of labor and progressive measures. As the present objects of this movement are purely in the line of legislation all efforts should be concentrated upon the election of members of congress and various state legislatures."

What issues shall the candidates for the legislature be pledged to? That is the most important question before the unions! In reaching a decision the history of the reform movement should be carefully examined. From the point of view of the American Federation of Labor the initiative and referendum are needed. In other words, there is an evolution in the system of representative government, the same as in other institutions, and in states where machine rule has not yet been terminated the next step should be the establishment of a system in which the voters can ballot direct on public questions—the initiative and referendum or the advisory initiative and advisory referendum. Under the latter system the candidates for the legislature while up for office are pledged to obey instructions when given by referendum vote.

The people's verdict, delivered by means of the referendum vote, would be effective, for the plan contemplates that at the time the referendum vote is taken the candidates for the legislature are to be pledged in writing to carry out the will of their constituents when expressed by referendum vote. It was through this system that Chicago managed to get an ordinance for public ownership of her street railways, and should the system be established in other states the pledged members of the legislatures will unquestionably heed their agreements, because a united public opinion will demand it.

Labor Briefs.

At the United Mine Workers' district No. 1 convention held recently in Carbonate, Pa., a resolution was adopted endorsing all members of the union regardless of party who are candidates for political office.

Plan to Amalgamate.

At the September convention of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, to be held at Niagara Falls, it is proposed to form an amalgamation of the two great national bodies of carpenters organized under the heads of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and the Amalgamated Association of Carpenters, forming one monster organization.

In addition to the sick and death benefits now paid by the union, it is planned to introduce a superannuated benefit of $3 a week for members who have been in good standing for a period of twenty-five years and who have reached the age of fifty-five years. Members who have been in good standing for twenty-five years and who have reached the age of sixty years will receive $5 a week for the rest of their lives.

Gompers Versus Cannon.

Speaker Joseph Cannon has announced that he will make a special point of combating President Gompers and the A. F. of L. during the coming congressional campaign. He is said to be making preparations at his home in Illinois to meet the attack of Gompers on Republican candidates. The speaker says he will hurl at Gompers the charge that he is the boss of thousands of laboring men.

How Women Can Aid Workers.

The first plan for union labor that was ever made before a national convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs was voiced at St. Paul by Mrs. Van der Vaart, who called upon her hearers to aid the working girl by buying those goods only which are manufactured under good working conditions.
